The Court

Dear Sir of Madam:

I am here today to accept the ruling from the court on my case. I have had time to reflect on my actions and now realize that there are much larger consequences than just what illnesses I have been dealing with. It has not only harmed the two nations but also the people of those nations. For this I am truly sorry. Up until the time of my illness and chronic depression I had a good working relationship with both nations oil and gas divisions and the BIA. Everyone in the Jicarilla Apache Nation and the Farmington BIA office were so willing to work with me and I did nothing to correct the wrongs. Your honor I apologize to this court, The Jicarilla Apache Nation as well as the BIA-Farmington Office and the Navajo Nation.

Sincerely,

Teresa McCown
